

Presentation of Cavalía's Rally – July 31st 2008, 2 pm, 3D Tent, Knokke-Heist

THE RALLY THAT WILL TURN KNOKKE-HEIST INTO THE CAVALIA VILLAGE

Cavalía, the Canadian equestrian show that is presented under the White Big Top at Knokke Station, is this summer's event on the Coast. The ticket sales have attained the 50,000 mark, and more than ever people are talking about Cavalía!

You can now add the Cavalía Rally, which brings the visitors from the 3D tent set-up on the beach in front of the Rubens Place, to your list of things to do to discover Knokke-Heist in an amusing way with the kids. Since the raising of this small tent at the end of June, the 3D movie has attracted close to 3,500 visitors per day.

The Rally takes visitors from the 3D tent to the Box Office in front of the Big Top in about an hour, where all participants will receive a rebate coupon for tickets to see the show.

You are invited to the presentation of Cavalía's Rally on July 31st 2008, at 2pm in the 3D tent on the Beach of Knokke-Heist, in front of the Rubens Place.

Cavalía is a magical show where artists and horses encounter in an incredible setting. 37 artists and more than 60 wonderful horses move together in a space comprised of 50 meters with spectacular multimedia projections. This show features acts that will take your breath away, pure artistic poetry, and incredible aerial acrobatics.

The show has already attracted more than 2,000,000 visitors across the globe, with 150,000 people in Brussels. 50,000 tickets have already been sold in Knokke.

CAVALIA, from July 22nd to August 30th 2008, in Knokke-Heist.
